

Teachers' pay protest

TAFE teachers walked off the job yesterday and rallied outside the office of Education Minister Bronwyn Pike.

About 150 protesters demanded better salaries and greater funding.

Victorian TAFE teachers' starting wages are $9000 lower than those of entry-level school teachers.

There is a $13,000 difference at the top of the pay scale.

In August, about 4000 TAFE teachers marched in the city over pay parity.
